Collection Title
San Diego College for Women Postcard Collection

Abstract
Colorful linen postcards were produced between 1930 and the late 1950s. These postcards were collected by the nuns of the Society of the Sacred Heart who established and administered the San Diego College for Women. In 1972, the College for Women merged with the College for Men to become USD's College of Arts and Sciences. Cloistered and therefore unable to travel, this collection represents their window on the world outside the walls of the college.

Scottsdale Public Library Digital Collection

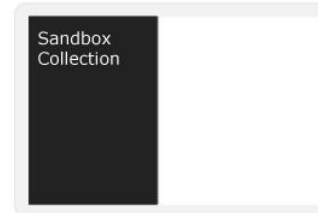

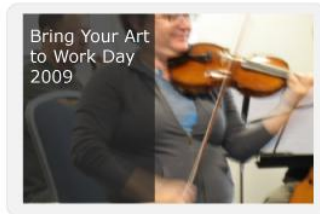

Welcome to the Scottsdale Public Library's digital collection. Here you have access to digital images of cultural and historical interest to Scottsdale residents as well as to students, researchers and others. This collection showcases the history and growth of what has changed from a small farming community into a world-class city. At present, the collection's time period spans the late 1800s to the mid-twentieth century and beyond. The collection contains digital versions of increasingly valuable, fragile and hard-to-use originals of people, places, and things pertaining to the City of Scottsdale. This project is a work in progress so please visit often!

Design of Contemporary Lighting Fixtures

This collection features Deco and mid-century modern pieces. The Deco pieces include both the angular and highly ornamental Art Deco of the early 1930s, and the clean, aerodynamic look of late-'30s Streamline. The mid-century modern pieces feature the elegant lines of spun aluminum glowing in brightly optimistic colors and the "starlight" pinholes of a space-obsessed culture.

The screenshot shows the University Library website interface. At the top left is the library logo with the text "University Library CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH". To the right are five small images: a library counter, a service desk, a staircase, a bookshelf, and a book. Below the logo is a search bar containing the word "dress" and a "Search" button. A "Sign in" link is also present. Below the search bar is a grey box with the text "Viewing results for 'dress'" and "5 results found. Display all, image". Below this is a navigation bar with "Displaying 1-5 of 5" on the left and "View grid, list" on the right. The main content area displays five search results in a grid:

- Eleanor Roosevelt's inaugural dress, 1933: A purple dress.
- Eleanor Roosevelt's inaugural dress, 1933: A brown patterned dress.
- Martha Washington's gown, 1780s: A dark, long-sleeved gown.
- Mary Harrison McKee's gown, 1889: A white, long-sleeved gown.
- Dressing a first lady mannequin, Arts and Industries Building, 1915: A purple and gold dress.
