

Eloisa Perez-de-Toledo is assistant professor of finance and accounting at MacEwan University in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. Her research interests are corporate governance, earnings management, Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) practices and its impact on firm value. She has published in the Corporate Ownership and Control Journal, International Journal of Business and Finance Research and International Journal of Sociology and Social Policy.