

MANAGING ASYMMETRIC INFORMATION IN THE ROMAN ECONOMY

Sevilla, 18-19 octubre 2018

Organiza:
Cristina Rosillo-López,
Universidad Pablo de
Olavide

Con la colaboración de:
Escuela de Estudios Hispano-
Americanos (CSIC)
&
Structural Determinants of Economic Performance in the Roman World
(Flanders Research Foundation –
Research Network)

Secretaría Técnica:
Déborah García Linares

Proyecto de investigación HAR2016-76882-P, El Mercado Inmobiliario en la Antigua Roma / Real Estate Market in the Roman World

18 octubre

9.15: Inauguración/Opening

9.30-11.30. Moderador/Chair: Koen Verboven (Universiteit Gent)

Pablo Revilla (Universidad Pablo de Olavide) Economics and Information: asymmetries, uncertainties and risks

Miko Flohr (Universiteit Leiden) Imperfect information in economic life on urban landscapes: the case of the Forum Romanum

Nicolas Tran (ANHIMA, CNRS, Paris) Dans quelle mesure, et pourquoi, les collègues professionnels romains favorisaient-ils, ou non, la diffusion de l'information économique?

11.30-12.00: Café/coffee break

12.00-13.30. Moderador/Chair: Marta García Morcillo (University of Roehampton)

François Lerouxel (Université Paris-Sorbonne) Roman prefects of Egypt and asymmetric information problem on real estate market (sales and mortgages)

Cristina Rosillo-López (Universidad Pablo de Olavide) Real estate market and information asymmetry in the Roman world

14.00-16.00: Almuerzo/lunch break

16.00-18.00. Moderador/Chair: Claire Holleran (University of Exeter)

Saskia Roselaar (Rhein Universität Bochum) Asymmetric information and the ager publicus

Neville Morley (University of Exeter) Managing uncertainty and risk in the Roman agronomists

Marta García Morcillo (University of Roehampton) Knowledge Management and Price Competition at Roman Auctions

20.30: Cena/Conference dinner

19 octubre

9.00-10.30. Moderador/Chair: Francisco Pina Polo (Universidad de Zaragoza)

Claire Holleran (University of Exeter) Information asymmetry and the Roman labour market

Myles Lavan (University of St. Andrews) Asymmetric information and Roman slavery

10.30-11.00: Café/coffee break

11.00-14.00. Moderador/Chair: Jean Andreau (EHSS, Paris)

Koen Verboven (Universiteit Gent) Roman Information Governance Systems and the Role of Financial Intermediaries

Dario Nappo (Università degli Studi di Napoli) Planned asymmetry of information? The case of the customs in the Egyptian Eastern desert

Peter Bang (Københavns Universitet) From Connectivity to Friction: asymmetric information, the Roman economy and the economic theory of Akerlof

Conclusions and round table